Opening Carol

“O Come, All You Faithful”

#135

Opening Prayer

One: Holy Center of this most holy season, Jesus, child and ruler: all our wanderings come home to you, all our griefs and delights find a place in the stable where you transform poverty, pain, loneliness and rejection.

All: Your light shines in our lives; your peace embraces our struggle; your life opens us to new awareness of ourselves and of our neighbors, however we may find them—as poor as shepherds, as foreign as magi, as generous as innkeepers, as vulnerable as infants. In your humble birth we discover your everlasting majesty and grace. We welcome you and offer you our thanks and praise, in your glorious name.
Amen.

The Inclusive Bible

The First Reading

Isaiah 9: 2-7

Mindy Peters

The people walking in darkness are seeing a brilliant light—upon those who dwell in a land of deep shadows light is shining!

God, you have made the nation greater—you have brought them abundant joy!

They celebrate in your presence as with the harvest celebrations, or as warriors celebrate when dividing spoils.

For the yoke that burdened them, the weight on their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressors—you have shattered it,
as you did at the defeat of Midian.

For every boot that tramped in battle, every cloak that was dragged through blood, is now used as fuel for the fire.

For a child is born to us, an heir is given us, upon whose shoulders dominion will rest. This One shall be called Wonderful Counselor, the Strength of God, Eternal Protector, Champion of Peace.

This dominion, and this peace, will grow, without end, with David's throne and realm sustained with justice and fairness, now and forever.
The Zeal of God Omnipotent will accomplish it!

The Second Reading

Luke 2: 1-7

Jill Greenhalgh

In those days, Caesar Augustus published a decree ordering a census of the whole Roman world. This first census took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All the people were instructed to go back to the towns of their birth to register.

The Fifth Reading

Luke 2: 15-20

When the angels had returned to heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let’s go straight to Bethlehem and see this event that God has made known to us.”

They hurried and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in the manger; once they saw this, they reported what they had been told concerning the child.

All who heard about it were astonished at the report given by the shepherds. Mary treasured all these things and reflected on them in her heart.

The shepherds went away glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, just as they had been told.

The Sixth Reading

John 1: 1-14

In the Beginning there was the Word;
the Word was in God’s presence, and the Word was God.

The Word was present to God from the beginning.
Through the Word all things came into being, and apart from the Word nothing came into being that has come into being.

In the Word was life, and that life was humanity’s light—a Light that shines in the darkness, a Light that the darkness has never overtaken.

Then came one named John, sent as an envoy from God, who came as a witness to testify about the Light, so that through his testimony everyone might believe.

He himself wasn’t the Light; he only came to testify about the Light—the true Light that illumines all humankind.

The Word was coming into the world—was in the world—and though the world was made through the Word, the world didn’t recognize it.

Though the Word came to its own realm, the Word's own people didn't accept it. Yet any who did accept the Word, who believed in that Name, were empowered to become children of God—children born not of natural descent, nor urge of flesh nor human will—but born of God.

And the Word became flesh and stayed for a little while among us; we saw the Word's glory—the favor and position a parent gives an only child—filled with grace, filled with truth.

A Prayer For Christmastide

The Invitation

Offertory Anthem “Still, Still, Still (with Brahm’s “Lullaby”)

Arr. By Phillips Keveren

Sung Response “In the Bleak Midwinter”

What can I offer, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb.
If I were a wise one, I would do my part;
but what can I offer: all my heart.

Prayer of Dedication

We praise you, hidden God, that in Jesus Christ you have come to us to speak your Word of love and life. Touch us with unearthly joy, like the singing of angels. Fill us with wonder, like the eyes of Children. Teach us to humble ourselves before you, like the worshiping magi. May our journey to the manger be only the beginning of a lifetime of service to Jesus our Christ. In gratitude and hope, we dedicate our gifts of love, money, and prayer to the work of your love. Amen.

“Silent Night, Holy Night”

#134

Silent night, holy night, all is calm, all is bright
'round yon virgin mother and child, holy infant so tender and mild, sleep in heavenly peace, sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night, holy night, shepherds quake at the sight, glories stream from heaven afar, heavenly hosts sing alleluia;
Christ, the Savior, is born! Christ, the Savior, is born!

Silent night, holy night, Son of God, love's pure light radiant beams from thy holy face, with the dawn of redeeming grace, Jesus, Lord, at thy birth, Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.
